Success Stories of Former Students Who Attended NCS

(Our Famous African Americans)

When they kept on questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let any one of you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her" John 8:7 (NIV)

Remember, when you walk through the doors of NCS as a student and move on to your career choice in life, many of us continue to pray for you.

1 Thessalonians 4:9-12, But as touching brotherly love, ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another. 10. And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in Macedonia. But we beseech you, brethren that ye increase more and more. 11. And that ye study to be quiet and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we have commanded you: 12. that ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

Please Note: This alumni pictorial was a one-time attempt to compile a collection of as many past students that the NCS staff and families of which NCS were aware. It is very likely we have missed hundreds of alumni students. However if any alumni group is interested in forming a committee to keep this unique project ongoing, let NCS know. We will give your committee what we have collected. Perhaps your committee can make a separate Alumni Pictorial Directory as an NCS fund raiser. Students who attended NCS for one year were also included in this pictorial as alumni.

There's a Hole in My Sidewalk: The Romance in Self-Discovery

Autobiography in Five Chapters

Written by Portia Nelson

<http://www.inspirationonline.com/rss/10OCT2005.htm>

CHAPTER 1

I walk down the street
There is a deep hole in the sidewalk
I fall in
I am lost...I am helpless
It isn't me fault
It takes forever to find a way out

CHAPTER 2

I walk down the same street
There is a deep hole in the sidewalk
I pretend I don't see it
I fall in again
I can't believe I am in the same place
But it isn't my fault
It still takes a long time to get out

CHAPTER 3

I walk down the same street
There is a deep hole in the sidewalk
I see it there
I still fall in...it's a habit
My eyes are open
I know where I am
It is MY FAULT
I get out immediately

CHAPTER 4

I walk down the same street
There is a deep hole in the sidewalk
I walk around it

CHAPTER 5

I walk down a different street

“Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise.” Ephesians 5:15
